In 2010 Dr. Cicilioni and Lori celebrated the birth of triplet girls, and their family has grown to 7 beautiful children. GREATEST PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENT: Co-development of a sternal plate and surgical technique for repair of the breastbone after open-heart surgery. That technique is now used worldwide, and he has lectured at numerous universities on the topic. INNOVATIONS: His practice offers innovative ways for use of Alloderm (ADM) and autologous fat grafting to enhance the breast in cosmetic and reconstructive surgery. WHAT SETS US

APART: Our practice and staff are strongly committed to helping women with breast cancer. We have "raised the bar" on expectations for postmastectomy reconstruction and strive to make our patients feel confident about themselves and their appearance.

OFF HOURS: Spend time with wife and family, computers, photography, and running. CHARITABLE WORK: Dr. Cicilioni has performed 12 Cleft Lip and Palate missionary trips to various cities in Mexico with the Florida Hospital Shares Foundation, and received numerous awards for his charitable contributions. FREE ADVICE: Choose a plastic surgeon who is board certified by the American Board of Plastic Surgery and a member of the American Society of Plastic Surgeons. This will assure you that your doctor has the proper training, skills and ethics to best treat your condition, and also is prepared to handle any complications that may arise.
